PORTENDS TROUBLE.

The Situation in Paris Still Serious and the Rumors of Military Revolt Continue.

Rumored That Prince Louis Bonaparte is Involved in the Coup d'Etat—More Serious Than Since the Commune.

Paris, Oct. 15.—The situation here is still most serious and the rumors of a military coup d'etat continue.

The Matin says the plot was not in favor of one of the pretenders to the throne of France, who has been talked about for some time, but was only for the purpose of changing certain officials of the government without touching the President.

The Premier, M. Brisson, was among those who were not surprised when notified of the plot. He promises to take action in the matter.

It is rumored that the conspiracy involved Prince Louis Bonaparte, who is a colonel of Russian Lancers, and in whose favor his elder brother, Prince Victor Bonaparte, recently resigned the leadership of the Imperialist party.

ENTERTAINMENT

Prepared for the Knights of Pythias at Middlesboro.

Middlesboro, Ky., Oct. 15.—The arrangements for entertaining the state Knights of Pythias from the 24th to the 27th, inclusive, in this city, are being pushed along energetically. There is every indication that the attendance is going to be larger than has marked these meetings for several years.

Brig. Gen. Millward and Col. Logan, representing the uniform rank Knights of Pythias of Kentucky, have completed arrangements with the Middlesboro lodge to hold the uniform rank competitive drill in this city at the meeting of the lodge. Six hundred dollars prize money has been offered by Middlesboro lodge, and it is expected that five or six companies will enter the contests. As there is considerable rivalry among several companies on account of the decisions rendered at the grand encampment at Indianapolis, it will probably be the most hotly contested event of its kind ever participated in.

TRIAL FOR PETTY LARCENY.

The case against Bill Hill, colored, charged with petty larceny, will come up before County Judge Tally this afternoon if the witnesses can be secured. Hill has been in jail for several months, and is charged with stealing $10 from a companion while he was asleep.

Drgists will say they sell more Plantation Chill Cure than all others.

Realizing the difficulty of obtaining pure goods and appreciating the repugnance many persons have in purchasing from saloons, we take pleasure in calling attention to our very complete line of

BEAUTIFUL.

The Opening Today at Hays, Foster & Ward's New Store.

The Big Establishment Filled With Visitors—Music and Dances Noticeable Features.

Paducah's new dry goods store has been today the center of attraction. From 9 o'clock this morning, the hour of opening, Hays, Foster & Ward have had a constant stream of visitors and customers.

Music for the occasion is furnished by an orchestra, while the various floors are most tastefully decorated with potted plants.

The first floor is devoted to dry goods and notions and the elegant display of the newest and latest in these lines shows that the stock of the new firm will be the most complete in Paducah. The second floor is devoted to shoes, ladies' wraps and apparel. The display of ladies' wraps was especially the object of admiration, and was pronounced by many a visitor one of the finest displays of the kind ever seen in this city. The third floor is devoted to rugs, blankets and boy's suits.

The opening has been most successful and the members of the new firm are to be congratulated on their first day of business in Paducah. Their head salesman is Mr. W. A. Armstrong, of Memphis, assisted by Mr. Stewart, of Memphis, and Mr. Chas. E. Walker, of this city. The salesladies are Misses Maggie Williams, Hattie Curd, Zilph Walker and Mrs. Salina Holland; Miss Benta Hill as cashier.

AFTER TANNER.

The Coal Operators Want to Infect the Governor.

Virgen, Ill., Oct. 15.—Everything is quiet here today, though the excitement is still at a white heat. A mine has gotten out a warrant against the coal operators charging them with murder.

It is rumored today that the operators will get out an indictment blaming Governor Tanner for the tragedy of Wednesday.

LARGE CROWD.

The Speaking Last Night Well Attended.

There were several hundred people at the city hall last night to hear the joint debate between Candidates Wheeler and Reeves, for congress from the First district.

It was a very lively debate, too, and both men got somewhat personal in their remarks. Mr. Reeves was the cooler of the two. Mr. Wheeler losing his temper to a degree. The crowd seemed to be for Reeves, but as to who got "skinned" in the argument, it depends entirely on the prejudices of the hearer. The Wheeler men claim that Wheeler got the better of it, while the Reeves men claim the opposite.

The candidates are billed for a speech in Graves county today, and Mr. Wheeler went out, but it is understood that Mr. Reeves will go down this afternoon, thinking it will be tonight, and will find that Mr. Wheeler has already spoken.

GREAT SHOWS.

We are advised that Pawnee Bill's Combined R. R. Show, Historical Wild West, Indian Museum, Grand Hippodrome, Exposition of Trained Animals and Congress of noted Chiefs and Cow Boys, Vaqueros and a limitless number of special features, will pay us a visit within a short space of time. It is under a management which has, in the past 15 years gained a most enviable reputation for dealing honestly and liberally with the public, and of presenting many features new and startling, and many feats which delight, amaze and amuse. Our exchanges speak in the highest terms of both the exceptional merit and high character of this grand combination, and it is the kind of show to which our readers will extend a hearty welcome. Genuine novelties and something new at reasonable prices, in place of empty bombast and brazen extortions, are what people want now, and will liberally patronize.

SATURDAY, OCT. 15, 1868.

WHOSE FAULT?

It is evident that a terrible blunder has been committed at Virden, Ill., and some one is responsible for the death of fourteen American citizens. Governor Tanner can never clear himself, of all blame for that terrible affair, for he positively refused to send the state troops there although warned that trouble would follow the attempt of the mine owners to introduce imported negro labor. The governor stood on the letter of the law, and allowed events to demonstrate the inability of the sheriff to maintain order. It took the deaths of fourteen men to satisfy the governor.

Public opinion also will not hold the operators at Virden blameless by any means. They refused to submit their differences with their union miners to arbitration as their miners desired. They went to the extreme of importing negro non-union miners to take the place of white union miners. In going to this extreme the operators defied public sentiment, threw wisdom to the winds, and yet were strictly within the limits of the law—they having the right to hire any laborers they wished. But fourteen graves attest the foolhardiness of their course and the public will hold the mine operators at Virden guilty.

AT FASHODA.

The situation between England and France as to the French's matter is vastly more serious than the public realizes. While it has been deemed possible that war would be the final arbitrator, yet the world has taken for granted that the good sense of the heads of the two governments would find some honorable way of avoiding war.

The simple facts of the case are that in the struggle for territory in Africa, a French detachment under Major Marchand, reached Fashoda on the upper Nile, first, France had a perfect right to occupy and to hold the town. No English officer had ever set foot there, though it has been the dream of English statesmen and adventurers for years to control all the valley of the Nile and ultimately to build a railroad from Cairo to Cape Town. Major Marchand has appeared and apparently upset all of England's plans and hopes. All political parties in England are in a unit demanding that Marchand and his little army be withdrawn, plainly letting it be understood that a refusal on the part of France means war.

At first France seemed apathetic and it was generally believed that her government would dictate the action of her gallant soldier and recall him. But this course will not be approved by the French people, and the government is being urged by loyal Frenchmen everywhere to stand firm and not to discredit the cause of the brave Marchand, who underwent untold danger to plant the French tricolor on the banks of the Nile.

Either France or England must yield, or there will be war.

The shameful manner in which the city's street roller has been abused by the present administration will not be forgotten by the people whose money bought it. It would be useless to attempt to prove that when properly used it is a good machine for every person who knows anything of its use good or bad, there is no excuse for allowing it to be run into holes, ditches and gutters and partially buried, where it gets exposed to all kinds of weather when there is a house built especially as a shelter for it. The result is that it has got out on the common pavement road, and nothing has been done to repair the damage, and other appropriate services tomorrow morning and evening. October 16th will be the association day in Paducah.

The "friends of the first year's work" will be read at the Union Service of Night.
